CONSTITUTION DAY

ORGANISED BY: Electoral Literacy Club, St. Xavier's College

VENUE: College Campus

DATE: 26th November 2024

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of St. Xavier's College, Ranchi, in order to mark the Constitution Day, organised an event where people around the college campus were asked to express their views on the topic : "Is the Constitution in danger.?" Views had to be presented either for the topic or against it.

The college management, staff, non-teaching staff and the students participated enthusiastically in this event. The students were divided into groups to conduct the interviews. They got different views from different people on the topic. The opinions presented, helped the students to increase the scope of their understanding about the same. This type of critical thinking helps students to develop their cognitive ability to question things around them and to be able to look beyond the picture. These activities inculcate the ability in students to be able to draw conclusions by analysing both the positive and negative aspects.

The students submitted their reports in the form of videos, images and assignments. The Department of Political Science plans to hold a panel discussion on the reports submitted by the students. This proposed panel discussion will help the students in understanding the various perspectives about the topic, which, in the long run, will help them get clarity in the subject matter.
