

1/3 COY ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE RANCHI
NCC

NCC REPORT - February 2025

Cancer Prevention & Epilepsy Awareness
(10.02.25)

1/3 COY NCC, St. Xavier's College, Ranchi, hosted a dynamic seminar on Cancer Prevention and Epilepsy Awareness on 10th February 2025, bringing together students and cadets for an eye-opening session on these critical health issues.

Dr. Ganesh Aggarwal consultant (head and neck oncologist) set the tone with an engaging talk on the pivotal role of youth in the fight against cancer and epilepsy, stressing the importance of early detection, awareness, and prevention. His insights were followed by an impactful session led by Mr. Vikash Kumar Singh (State Marketing Head) and Mr. Manoranjan Roy (State Branding Head), who shed light on the significance of public awareness campaigns and collective action.

The seminar saw an enthusiastic turnout of 200 participants, including 140 NCC cadets and 60 students from the Zoology Department. The attendees gained valuable knowledge on how they can contribute to spreading awareness and breaking the stigma associated with these diseases.

The event's highlight was a powerful and inspiring concluding speech by ANO Lt. Dr. Priya Srivastava Ma'am, who underscored how an informed and motivated youth can become a catalyst for change, helping to educate society, shatter myths, and eliminate fear surrounding cancer and epilepsy.

Under her visionary leadership, the seminar turned into a resounding success, leaving a lasting impact on the young minds present. The event not only empowered the participants but also ignited a sense of responsibility to champion health awareness and contribute to a healthier, more informed society.

Black Day (Pulwama Attack) (14.02.25)

"The sacrifice of the martyrs will always be a beacon of light for our nation"

1/3 COY NCC St. Xavier's College, Ranchi in collaboration with NSS, organised a candle march to observe the BLACK DAY to pay tribute to the martyrs who lost their lives in the Pulwama Attack on 14th February 2019. On this day, a suicide bomber targeted a convoy of Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) personnel in Pulwama, Jammu & Kashmir, killing 40 Jawans.

Black Day honors the martyrs and reaffirm India's commitment to fighting terrorism. Citizens, leaders, and the armed forces pay tribute to the fallen soldiers, remembering their supreme sacrifice. The Pulwama attack remains a painful reminder of the price of national security and the ongoing struggle against terrorism. It also strengthens India's resolve to ensure that such tragedies do not repeat.

A total of 250 individuals participated in the candle march which included 150 NCC cadets and 100 NSS cadets approx. The participation showed the honor and respect the youth holds for the brave soldiers of our country. The nation stands united in remembering and honoring its brave hearts. At the end ANO Lt. Dr. Priya Srivastava ma'am address and brief us about the event which inspire all the cadets. Under her guidance the event was made successful.

