Triumph

Date: 16 December 2023

Venue: Fr. Proost Hall, St. Xavier's college, Ranchi

"TRIUMPH," a significant event held on 16th December at Fr. Proost Hall, unfolded as a heartfelt tribute to the valor of our soldiers, commemorating Vijay Diwas. This commemoration of victory over Pakistan was not merely an event but an embodiment of respect and gratitude towards the armed forces. Chief organisers Vijay Krishna and Sahifa Ibrar spearheaded the event with integrated efforts from the Board of Directors, Vice president, team heads, and members.

The day commenced at 10:00 am, resonating with the spirit of Vijay Diwas, and unfolded a series of activities culminating at 3:00 pm. The diverse range of competitions included a poetry contest, declamation, and speeches, fostering a platform for participants to express their sentiments and reflections on the historical victory. Ms. Aroma Aishwarya Barla, an esteemed judge, brought a touch of professionalism to the event, evaluating the performances with precision.

The recognition and appreciation for the participants were manifested through the thoughtful awards system. Gift boxes were bestowed upon the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd position holders, symbolizing their triumph in the respective competitions. Additionally, all participants were acknowledged with certificates, emphasizing the inclusive nature of the event. This gesture not only celebrated individual achievements but also reinforced a sense of collective participation and encouragement.

The host Sahifa Ibrar and co-host Sarvjeet Singh was right on mark while approximately 50 participants actively engaged in the event, contributing to the vibrant atmosphere and making TRIUMPH a resounding success. The diversity of talents showcased in the poetry, declamation, and speeches reflected the multifaceted nature of the participants, creating a rich tapestry of expression and creativity. Beyond the competitive aspects, the event succeeded in fostering a sense of camaraderie and unity among the participants, creating lasting memories and connections.
